Essay Submission

Each applicant is required to attach an essay to this application. The essay shall count as forty percent of the scoring during the evaluation of this application.

The essay should not be less than 500 nor more than 1,500 words. It should be typed or word-processed, double-spaced on white paper.

The essay topic is "What Cooperatives Mean to My Community."

Our communities are served by dozens of cooperative businesses. Your family may be members of multiple cooperatives. Your essay may relate to your personal experience or to an overall benefit perspective.

You may use teachers, local cooperative employees and directors, or other resource material as part of your essay. A bibliography is not required.

The essay will be judged primarily on content, but the mechanical structure of the writing shall also be reviewed. Essays may be printed in the Electrawatt newsletter, which is provided to all RushShelby Energy members each month.
